Major Themes:

- Thoughts on becoming a father
 1. child's success;
 2. supporting and giving a good life;
 3. difficult Aspects of fatherhood
 - a. hospital and provider stories
 - b. differences upstate/downstate
 - c. bedside manner
 - d. postpartum depression
 - e. ideas for supporting fathers
- Reflections from the fathers – some similar memories and feeling that women have
- Treatment of wife/bedside manner/treatment of him by staff especially with his concerns/ single fathers

B. Summit Virtual Innovation Station It's a Man's World Tiffany Chalk and Susan Noyes

It's a Man's World | Annual Summit - Delaware Thrives \(dethrives.com\)

C. Remanned Project Presentation, Dr. Donald Morton

D. Other Delaware activities celebrating Men's Health Month

- i Address, embrace and overcome adverse realities that come with everyday life
- ii “adversity is waiting to throw you a parade”
- iii Character arch / principle man / emotional intelligence / sense of nobility
- iv Focus on men who are less privileged
- v Men of color, specifically black men, are not supported with these services

Data shows black fathers are more involved than others – they are not resourced would rather check out than lose.

“The Disappearing Black Family”

The father disconnects if hasn't found a way to address the adversities – bad choices made from bad information. He can't succeed so moves on to the next lady.

These are the cycles/patters being seen

MANHOOD before FATHERHOOD

00:19:12 Katherine.Kolb: Kathy Kolb from DPH Title X

00:22:00 Lisa Klein: Can you make it a little larger?

00:23:17 Alexandra Parkowski: From AB&C, Toni Sinibaldi, Behavior Change Account Executive, is also on this call!

00:23:34 Jen D: close the tool bar on the right

00:27:55 Lisa Klein: In the indicators row can you reduce the size of 'More than 5 of 10" and '44%" to be able to enlarge the print below? Also can the color in 3-4 X and 2.7X circles have more contrast?

00:32:58 Lisa Oglesby: Great visual. I would add continuity of care under population health strategies in the importance of relationships.

00:34:18 APRIL: lyonsden64@aol.com

00:34:52 Tom Stephens: For infographic, suggest not using the acronym EWETD. Folks not directly involved in this group/initiative are not going to know what that is.

00:35:19 APRIL: thanks Dr. Stephens, great thought!

00:38:40 Susan Noyes: Would everyone please check your audio and make sure your are muted? Thank. You everyone!!

00:45:17 Joan Kelley: I just sent an email to Susan and Leah; I wanted to get something to the team.

00:46:04 Joan Kelley: I received an email from Maternal Mental Health Leadership Alliance on June 2021 Dads and Depression. Excellent referral source.

00:46:19 Susan Noyes: Thanks Joan!

00:47:16 Joan Kelley: I'm sorry, I sent it to Leah and Jennifer Donovan b/c I did not have both you and April's email. My apologies.

00:57:29 Tiffany Chalk: You are telling the truth

00:58:25 Lisa Oglesby: Thanks for sharing your insight Dr. Morton.

01:00:46 APRIL: facts!

01:01:59 Susan Noyes: Kathryn Eden was one of our keynote summit speakers a few years ago.....her work is strong.

01:02:42 APRIL: if men have criminal histories particularly felonies. the ability to access social supports is denied to them.

01:03:01 Lisa Klein: Dr. Morton is your program based in the community or within the prison system?

01:04:01 Tom Stephens: I apologize but I have to leave early. Really appreciate Dr. Morton's comments.

01:06:04 Lisa Klein: Thank you for doing that!

01:07:56 Susan Noyes: We have talked for years—a decade about the missing “M” in MCH. Men are so important to be part of our conversation. Thank you for sharing your insights. So important for all of us to hear!!!!

01:08:03 Khaleel Hussaini: Great conversation Dr. Morton!

01:09:05 Khaleel Hussaini: Has the "Reman Project" part of the Fatherhood Initiative in Alameda County from LA or is this a completely new initiative?

01:13:20 Susan Noyes: “We believe in manhood before fatherhood”. Dr. Morton

01:13:31 Tiffany Chalk: Love that quote!

01:14:17 Susan Noyes: Book: Doing the best I can by Kathryn Edin;

01:16:04 Lisa Klein: Asking the hard questions!
